

Discussing the Israel-Hamas Conflict in the Classroom

PARALLEL HISTORIES

These resources can support you in teaching about the history of the conflict, with guidance on having sensitive and difficult conversations:

- Parallel Histories challenge students to examine a range of sources in order to debate and discuss different viewpoints in a polite and respectful way
- Solutions Not Sides provides class activity packs to discuss the conflict with multimedia, questions, time for reflection, and scope for further learning
- Educate Against Hate also has a new blog post to help you speak about the news, ongoing conflicts & hold discussions on difficult topics with students
